Dear Sir,

I am writing to put in my claim for compensation on the loss of two miniatures painted by me and exhibited this year in the Royal Hibernian Academy, Dublin.

On number 15 (a portrait Mrs. Rawley Turpin), exhibited at Burlington House London, Academy 1914 I claim £15.15. 0 number 28 A Toy Spaniel, my claim is £3. 3. 0. I was not insured, but trust my claim will be considered amongst others I was exceedingly sorry to hear of the destruction of the Academy and its works.

Yours faithfully,

(Signed) Bertha E. Morris.

P.S. I hope to hear further later.

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your letter & the enclosed form, which I see has to be signed by a Justice of the Peace - I am getting this done & will then return it to you at once.
I trust you will give my claims

Consideration, as Mr. Blair Purone offered to send in my claim for me. I have written & asked him if he will kindly explain this to you, & put matters right.
It would be most disappointing to lose the chance of getting compensation as really the mistake is not mine.

I am extremely sorry to hear you so much trouble, & will get the form signed at once

Yours faithfully,

Walter S. Purone

Feb 10. 1914

Dear Sir,

I am writing to you in reference to my claim for loss of two minutes in The Royal Hibernian Academy of 1916. I put in my claim last year immediately after I knew of my loss, I was told I should receive compensation in due course. Having nothing now for some time I again wrote to Mr. Blair Brown, received his reply last evening. He tells me he is "greatly surprised" at my not yet having received compensation, I advised me to immediately write to you ^u Dr. Brown, of my claim, which was 18 guineas. One miniature was valuable in many ways, it had also been exhibited in The Royal Academy, London, in 1914; the claim I make is very small, in comparison.

I trust I shall be paid soon, having waited so long - yours faithfully Mertta E. Morris.
