J.J. Healy, Esq.,

Secretary Property Loss Committee,

51, Stephens Green,

DUBLIN.

Dear Sir,

In April 1916 Miss Gannon, of 5, Upper Sackville Street, present address 69 Grafton Street had silk goods on approval from this Company amounting to £9 18 4, which were destroyed with her premises. We asked her to include this amount in her claim, and we now find that her solicitor advised her not to do so as the goods were not her property. We will thank you to let us know if you will consider our claim at this date, and forward us the necessary forms to make same, and oblige.

Yours truly,

THE HENRY ST. WAREHOUSE CO. LD.

SC/ML.
