Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 25th instant I beg to state that besides a J.P. the form can likewise be signed in presence of a Solicitor, who is also a Commissioner for taking affidavits. There is no other alternative. As the Committee are winding up their work, it will be necessary that the claim shall be lodged here within the next few days to ensure its being dealt with.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Dear Sir

Reply to yours of yesterday, I wish to state that ~~Mr~~ Sam is a perfect stranger in London - don't know an F.P. whom I could get to witness my signature

If you will kindly let me know if any other man holding a good position, will do for the same, I shall be much obliged under the circumstances

And oblige
