Interests in the buildings

Remarks

I have investigated this claim, and consider £5.12/- reasonable compensation. The above mentioned articles have not been included in Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins claim. They were in fact quite unaware that any claims would arise thereunder until quite recently, and not until the respective customers claimed from them. The articles were debited and delivered, and came back to be engraved, during which they were destroyed, and now the customers refuse to pay.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 14th instant I beg to state that the articles referred to should apparently have been included in your own claim. If they were not so included a separate claim on the enclosed form should be made and lodged here at once. It will then be seen whether the Committee can deal with such claim.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Re Account for Solid Silver Trowel.

Dear Sirs.

I am in receipt of yours of the 4th inst asking for a sum of £ 4.10.0
in payment for a solid silver Trowel which was returned to your firm to be engraved & lettered, and same has not been returned, as soon as the article is returned, then the account shall have prompt attention. I think application for payment in the circumstances requires some explanation.

Dear Sir, Whether these articles referred to are or not, has been inquired in house 14-17th

In reply to yours of the 13th inst., re Claim No. 6262-M. E. Johnston we beg to inform you that the claimant had not paid for the Carving knives and they still remain in our books and she refuses to pay for them. The same thing applies to claim of A. Scott for silver trowel.

We shall be glad if you could see your way to look into this matter otherwise it will be a dead loss to us.

Yours obediently,
HOPKINS & HOPKINS.

re Claim No. 6262 - M. E. Johnston.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 10th inst I beg to state that this appears to be a claim from the Training College, Talbot Street, for four carving knives at 8s.6d. each sent to you for repair, and lost in the destruction of your premises. It is assumed that you are not legally liable for these knives and in that case, as the owners - the Training College authorities - will not make a claim they must remain at the loss of the articles.

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Hopkins & Hopkins,
1 Sackville Street,
Dublin.
