re Claim No. 6975.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 1st instant, I beg to say that the latest date for receiving intimation of claims as notified in the newspapers was 12th August, 1916. A list of claims outstanding from persons whose property was destroyed in Wynns Hotel, Dublin, was received from Messrs. Roger Greene & Sons on 10th August, and claims in all these cases when furnished later were admitted. As your name was not on that list the Committee were unable to entertain the claim when about three months later they were advised of it for the first time.

Yours faithfully,

Mr C. Broderick,

Limerick.

Dear Sir,

12 months ago in the burning of

to the value of about 4 £ I placed the affair in the hands of

for a short time

afterwards

who ^{now} write me to say they have done all they could in the matter - The strange part is that 2 other gentlemen forming a party staying at the hotel that night got paid. Though my claim was sent in previous to theirs

Dear Sir,

We thank you for your very full report of the 18th Decr. in reference to the various cases that have been lodged by us.

re ⁶⁹⁷² H. Law and ⁶⁹⁷³ Connie O'Sullivan

We understood that ~~negotiations~~ ^{particulars} had been entered into and sent to you, the delay has been occasioned by these parties being residents out of Dublin, and it took some time to trace their whereabouts. Under these circumstances we would ask the indulgence of your Committee to have them re-considered. The amounts are small and we do not think they could in any way affect the Government by being dealt with.

Yours faithfully,

J. J. Healy, Esq.,

In reply say that Committee regret they cannot alter their decision not to accept the claims of H Law + Connie O'S.
