Dear Sir:-

Mr. Henry Joseph Wall of Pembroke House, South Lotts Road Pembroke, has asked me to forward to you the enclosed claim for £5:4:0, and he stated that the reason why he did not send in the claim earlier is that some disputes arose between him and Messrs Eills & Co., of Liverpool, from whom Mr. Wall purchased the goods for which he now claims, and in fact some proceedings were commenced and were ultimately settled. This all took time. Mr. Wall is a struggling business man and the loss of this money to him would be very serious. I trust that although it is very late that the claim will be inquired into and disposed of.

I also enclose the Invoice for these things.

Yours faithfully,

Charles P. O'Neill

Reply that as the Council are waiting up their work then reply on what the claim are made was to maintain
