 Remarks
 With reference to claim 6846 (Fulker) I have had a further interview with Fulker, and now re-affirm what I stated in my Report thereon - dated 10 <sup>2</sup>/<sub>17</sub> - that the Clarinet claimed for therein was not his property, but that of the Irish National Foresters and Brass & Reed Band.
 I have investigated the latter's claim, and consider £7.18/- fair and reasonable compensation.

14th February, /7.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 9th inst I beg to state that nothing has so far been paid to Mr Edward Fulker from this Committee. A claim has been recently received from him for articles stated to be his property which include a clarionet and some music. This has not yet been dealt with by the Committee. If the clarionet referred to is the one claimed by your Committee I shall be glad to hear further from you.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Sir

Capt. Ben Br. Conn

on letter to Father

John 6/12/17

I am directed by my committee to inform you that a suit of uniform and a Clarinet in case value £14-0-0. The property of above Band was destroyed in Linnen Hall Barracks during Easter Week. The above property was in care of Mr. Fulker the caretaker of the Barracks, who states he made a claim for above but just received a suit of clothes to suit his business. My committee will be very thankful to hear from you as soon as possible

Respectfully yours

James Dillon
Gen. Sec.
