RE/ 18 WOOD QUAY
RE/ PROPERTY LOSSES (IRELAND) COMMITTEE, 1916.

Dear Sir,

I act as Solicitor for Mrs. Elizabeth M. Evans of 2 Frankford Avenue, Rathgar, who is the owner of 18 Wood Quay, and which was held from her by a Mr. Cumisky, under Lease.

It has only come to my Client's knowledge recently that the roof was damaged during the Rebellion in April last. The Corporation authorities have obtained an Order to close the premises in consequence of the rain coming in, but this Order was only served on my Client last week and was the first intimation she received.

That being so I shall feel obliged if you will kindly let me know if I may send forward a Declaration of my Client setting forth her claim. I understand all the claims are still under consideration in relation to the Buildings and I do not think there is anything in the Statute limiting the time in such a case. Kindly let me have the necessary forms.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee, 1916,
51 St. Stephen's Green,
Dublin.

Before this the Commrs require that claims are lodged or this letter ought to accept a cl. for compensation for damage to business premises in Cyl Row.
