*Reply done in the course of the evening we have with that regard very much less than we would have to accept any fresh claims
JWH 6/3*

Dear Sir;

Our Auditors on going through our accounts came across the undermentioned item, and having explained to them, this work was necessary by reason of bullet holes in our roof at the time of the Rebellion, they recommended us to make a claim for compensation:-

To Slaters' time refixing loose slates on roof - providing and fixing 2 dozen new 24 x 12 B.B. slates, slipping cracked plates with sheet zinc - repairing cement fillets and pointing - supplying and glazing one pane glass, including materials. £3 : 13 : 11

The work was carried out by Messrs J.F. Keatinge & Sons. Grafton Street. We shall feel much obliged if you would put our claim forward.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours Faithfully.
