Dear Sir

I have had a letter from the Laurence Hotel about my clothes
I lost in the rebellion last May they told me to write to you I sent in my claim last June and I don't think it is fair to keep me waiting all this time I had no clothes to start work only what my sister gave me a solicitor wrote to me from Dublin last exms and said he would send my claim on to me for reviewing and then he wrote and said my claim was late it was not late. but I will keep his 10 letters he sent me hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience

Obledge

Yours faithfully
