I wish to write you
regarding a claim for Damages caused on

It split open the
brick work at window,
riddled a splendid
Cabinet of mine, split open two walls in
the room and also

blouse & inside clothing & she fainted & is
not over the shock yet.
I also had a narrow escape as the bullet
which I had in my possession passed thro'
my legs.

I did not know about
it or who to write
to or I would have applied to you

before now so I trust I am not too late.

Y
Trusting to hear from you regarding
the matter.

I am in from 1 o'
