Dear Sir,

We have just been advised by our customer, Mr. W. V. Johnston, of Johnston's Pharmacy, 9 Mc Gowan Terrace, Ranelagh, Dublin, that a parcel of Tooth Powder which was despatched to him per the British & Irish Steam Packet Co, on 6th April last, failed to reach him. We have been in touch with the S.S.Co re this matter but they advise us that they cannot prove delivery as the transaction took place during the Dublin rebellion and they have suggested that we should communicate with you on the subject, lodging a claim for the amount of the goods in question. This we do herewith and shall be glad to hear from you in due course.

Yours sincerely,

J.M. Smith & Co. js
