19th December,

Prescott's Claim.
8 Lower Abbey Street.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 18th instant re claim for rent, I do not know that there is anything that can usefully be added to my previous letters on the subject. In the first place the claim is late and for that reason, even if in order, it could not be considered. Further it is not urged that the loss was covered by insurance, and in no instances where loss of rent was not insured against have the Committee been able to entertain a claim.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Prem. 8 IR Abbey St - re supplemental Claim

Dear Sir,

We have yours of the 11th inst. Our clients are not satisfied with the decision of the committee, and we are instructed to have a question asked in Parliament as to why in several cases similar Claims have been recognised by the committee and as we understand actually paid, and our clients claim will not be entertained. Perhaps you will kindly let us have an explanation as to this in the first instance.

Yours faithfully,

The secretary,

We are obliged for yours of the 7th inst. We again urge that this claim should be re-considered by the committee. The Prescott Trustees have lost every penny of rent from their sub-Tenants and should be recouped the actual head rent for which they are liable since the premises were destroyed.

yours faithfully,

The Secretary,

Dear Sir,

We have your letter of 30th ult. The Trustees Prescott are Lessees and are indebted to the Head Landlords in about £70 Head rent, running over the period since the premises have been destroyed during the Rebellion. Surely this is a legitimate claim that the Committee would recommend payment of.

Yours faithfully,
