Mrs. A. E. Mc Glasan

Declined by Committee

Too late

7015

18th Decr.,

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 15th instant I beg to state the Committee regret they are unable at this late date to accept claims for compensation for losses arising out of the disturbances in April last. The latest date for receiving notification of claims was 12th August, 1916.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Mrs A. E. McGlashan, Brookfield,
Tallaght,
Co. Dublin.

Brookfield
Sallagh
Co Dublin
15.12.16

And under your MS

1872

To J. J. Healy Esq.

Dear Sir

During the Dublin
Rebellion a gold watch value £10 and a pair gold sleeve links value £3 were destroyed in Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins where they were been repaired Mr Murphy Manager of the firm can prove their value as the articles were bought there from him.

At the time of the Rebellion I was ill in a private Hospital in North Frederick St and when

Came home I was still unwell for some weeks and was ordered away by my Doctor to the Sea for change I did not bother about papers or know that a notice had been in them re-claims for lost property So this accounts for the delay. Trusting I am not too late in sending in my claim for articles mentioned.

Yrs Truly

(Mrs) A. E. Mc Glashan

P.S. If necessary I can have a Doctor's certificate.
