8th December,

re claim of P. J. Newport.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 7th instant re above, I beg to state that the Committee regret that they are unable at this late date to accept claims for compensation for losses arising out of the disturbances in April last. The latest date for receiving notification of claims was 12th August, 1916.

Yours faithfully,

for Secretary.

COMMISSIONER FOR OATHS.

Chambers, 60 Blessington Street

(Formerly 28 Stafford Street),

Dublin, 7th December 1916

Dear Sir,

I herewith enclose Copy of letter received from Wardmaster of the South Dublin Union. I informed him I believed it was altogether too late, but I would forward Copy of his letter to you. He is of course prepared to make the usual declaration as to value &c.

J. J. Healy Esqr.
Secretary
Property losses. Committee

South Dublin Union

5th day of December 1916

Sir In the month of July last. immediately after the Rebels had occupied the Workhouse I lodged a claim in writing with the Master for £2-10-0 the value of an overcoat destroyed on me during the occupation, ~~this~~ claim was to be sent on to you with the other Officers but I am informed it was omitted either in the Masters Office or otherwise - Will you please see if you can do anything for me in the way of recompence, as I am a poor man depending on my salary, and the Coat was my own property bought a short time before.
It was not part of my uniform
