re. Claim of Mrs Elizabeth Walter.

Dear Sir,

I am obliged for your favor of the 27th ulto and regret to learn that the claim is late through an oversight and ignorance of the claimant.

The claimant is a poor woman in a small way of business as a news vendor, she informs me that the upper part of her house was so badly injured that she cannot let it for lodgings, which was part of her means of support.

Under the circumstances above stated perhaps your committee would see its way to receive the claim notwithstanding its having been sent in late.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

M. Lane Horan
