Dear Sir,

re Claim of John McGrane,
Lisburn Street Dispensary.

I have been instructed to make a claim for £3 damages for an overcoat, umbrella and a pair of boots all value for £3 destroyed in Easter week at his residence during the Rebellion. He says he did not believe the Government were going to pay compensation until he saw the other people being paid.

Will you kindly let me have forms to put in the claim.

Yours faithfully,

John McDowell
