Dublin 7th Novr. 1916.

Dear Sir,

Claim of Elizabeth McGrane
32 Moore Street.

Miss McGrane of the above address has instructed me to make a claim for loss sustained by the destruction of her property in Easter week. She owned a store which was broken into and a large quantity of fruit was destroyed.

Her reason for not making the claim sooner is, that she was under the impression that it was only shopkeepers who could make a claim and as she did not keep a shop, she thought she was excluded.

Will you kindly send me three forms for this claim.

Yours faithfully,

Reply that the Committee requires this to be made a claim as the loss are.
