Compensation claim

Sir
I have recently heard that the Government were paying compensation for damages done during the late Rebellion and having been informed that I should send in my application to you.

I beg to state that considerable damage was done to the roof of my Houses nos 49 & 50 Harcourt by the Soldiers who were stationed on the roofs, and I have since had to get same repaired and it cost £57 odd.

I therefore respectfully enter my Claim for compensation

I am Sir
Your Obedt Servant
