for Oaths.

Dear Sir,

Patrick Dunne, 3 North King Street
Edward Martin, do.
Thomas O'Brien, do.
Mrs Meehan, do.

*Reply that the Committee regret that these are unable to do so. But to receive for compensation
cl. in respect of damages done in rebellion week.*

I have been instructed by the above parties to put in claims for injuries to their furniture at the above address during rebellion week. The claims are small. The injury was caused by bullets being shot into the house and by the conduct of the Military while in possession of the house. There is no doubt whatever about the facts of these cases.

The reason for not putting in the claims sooner is, that these people were under the belief that a representative from your Committee would call on them in reference to the subject.
Of course, this was wrong, but they are uneducated people.

I think these are cases in which your Committee ought to receive the claims. Will you kindly let me have the necessary forms for the purpose of putting them in.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,

Property Losses Committee,
