Sedgwick, Collins & Co

Declined by Committee

(Insurance too liable & too late)

7073

8th November,

Dear Sirs,

Mr Kidney has forwarded me your letter of the 3rd instant, and in reply I beg to state that in no case in which an Insurance Company is liable for the loss sustained can the Committee entertain a claim.

I am to add that the latest date fixed for receiving claims was 12th August, 1916.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Dear Sir,

We have, as Brokers, for Messrs. Slazengers Ltd. collected from Underwriters a claim for the total loss of three packages of tennis goods consigned to the Junior Army & Navy Stores, ^{Dublin} London. These goods were dispatched by the British & Irish Steamship Company whose stores in your city were looted during the disturbance last Easter.

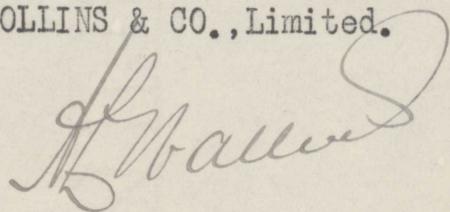

We shall be glad to know what documents you require to substantiate Underwriters rights to recovery.

Awaiting your reply,

We are, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

For SEDGWICK, COLLINS & CO., Limited.

Director.
