No 7083

March 29-17

Dear Sir

Will you kindly put my claims for Compensation again before the proper Authorities: I know I have been rather late
in making it. but at the time of happening
a friend told me nothing less than £5- would be considered. Moreover

I expected a communication from your Office - as a Constable came to 4 Clarewilliam Place & took down an account of the losses. I forgot to mention when sending in my
claim that it cost me 10/- to have the lid &
locks of my trunk re-
-paired, it having been broken open by the military Henry Blenbooke
