Dear Sirs

Replying to your letter of the 8th inst. Re claim for Butter commandeered in Dublin on Easter week 1916) I was very much surprised when I received your letter saying that you were unable to deal with any fresh claims. Indeed you must remember that our's is not a fresh claim. It is a long time now on hands and it is time it were settled now. So I hope you will give our case your very kind consideration. Had the butter been delivered at its destination there would be no need for claims. It is now almost 12 months due and surely that's no fresh claim. Hoping you will treat our claim the same as all other claims
