Dear Sir,

Mr. Cunningham, Manager of Mrs. Lowry's Pawnbroking Establishment in 85 Marlborough Street has handed us the enclosed Claim made on behalf of Mr. Jameson for £43:10:0 in respect of Jewellery which was pawned by her in his place previous to the disturbance of last year and which articles were missing after the Rebellion.

At the time of the settlement of Mrs. Lowry's Claim your Committee paid to her the amount of the cash lent on the property with interest, stating if any claims were made by the Pledgers that they should be sent on to you and that your Committee would deal with them.

7/24

Will you kindly just forward the Claim for settlement.

Yours Faithfully

Mrs Catherine Jameson.

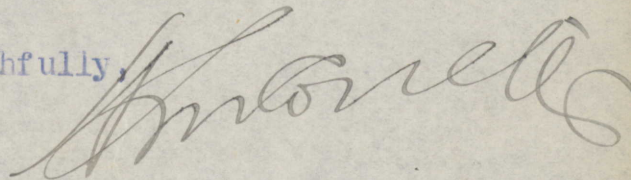

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of yours of the 18th inst, and note what you say.

In this case, of course it was impossible for my client to know that her goods were lost until she went to claim them. I am only trying to save Mrs Lowry.

Yours faithfully,

re Claim No. 7124.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 17th instant I beg to say that in no instance was the Property Losses Committee able to entertain a claim for property lost during the disturbances unless it was put forward by the owner, and notices calling on all owners of property so lost to lodge claims with the Committee appeared in the newspapers.

As the Committee has sent its final report to the Government and has ceased to exist, I regret very much that the claim of your client cannot now be entertained.

Yours faithfully,

WJ

Re:- Jameson.

Dear Sir,

My client, Mrs Jameson on the 10th April 1916 left with Mrs Margaret Lowry, Licensed Pawnbroker, 85 Marlborough Street, Dublin, certain valuable jewellery on which the sum of £6. 0. 4. was advanced by the Pawnbroker.

When Mrs Jameson went to redeem the said articles previous to the 10th inst, the Pawnbroker stated that the goods referred to had been stolen during the Rebellion and that she had applied to your Committee for compensation in respect of these goods, and that the Committee stated to her that they could not recognize ~~xxx~~ claims until they were made by the persons who pawned the goods.

Under these circumstances Mrs Lowry disclaims all liability and refers me to you. I shall be much obliged if you will kindly let me hear from you stating whether what Mrs Lowry states is correct or not.

My clients claim amounts to the sum of £43. 10. 0.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
