Dear Sir:-

Re Claim No. 7125.

We have received your reply dated 19th. inst., and regret to learn that your Committee has made its final report. We would be glad to know if there is any other channel ^{through} from which we could forward our claim, which, as already explained would have been sent much sooner but that we were under the impression that Mr. Sinclair had made his claim.

You omitted to return ^{our} the Customer's letter, kindly let us have same with your reply.

Yours faithfully,

W. Birney & Co. Limited

re Claim No. 7125.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 18th instant I beg to say that the Property Losses Committee having lodged its final report with the Government is no longer in existence. It is regretted therefore that your claim cannot be taken into consideration. The letter from Mr Sinclair enclosed with yours is herewith returned.

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. McBirney & Co., Ltd.,

(Enc. for Mr Sinclair offering to him of cl. not admitted - returned)
Dear Sir:—

We wish to draw your attention to the following:—

On the 22nd. of April 1916, we sent Suits on approbation to Mr. J. Sinclair, 8, Lower Sackville Street, value £6-3-6, these goods were destroyed in the conflagration that ensued on the following Monday. We understood that Mr. Sinclair was making a claim on you for the value of the goods hence the reason that we have not made you aware of these facts at an earlier date. We enclose you his letter received to-day from which we infer that the claim should be made by us. We hope, therefore, that you will give this matter your attention and let us have payment of the amount at an early date.

Yours faithfully,

McBirney & Co. Limited
