re Claim No. 7141.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 25th instant I beg to state that the Committee having lodged its final report with the Government has ceased to exist and it is regretted therefore that no fresh claim can now be entertained.

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Chancellor & Son,
55 Lr. Sackville St.,
Dublin.

The Secretary,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee,
51 St. Stephens Green, East,
DUBLIN.

Dear Sir,

On surveying our Shop Front at 55 Lr. Sackville Street, for the purpose of having same done up, we have discovered some damage (bullet holes) in the Glass Sign Boards, which escaped our notice when making our claim, for the loss caused by the Rebellion last year.

Although not very obvious, this damage will be expensive enough to make good, and we shall be glad to know if your Committee is prepared to consider our reasonable claim for Compensation.

We shall be glad to show you, or your representative the damaged signs and to fill any necessary forms or documents,

CHANCELLOR & SON—continued.

Yours faithfully,

CHANCELLOR & SON.
