re Claim No. 7155.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 2nd instant with enclosures, I beg to state that Mr Lea's claim in respect of customers' goods lost in his premises and for which he was not liable, was disallowed by the Property Losses Committee, and he was so advised at the time. The owners of all property lost during the disturbances were informed through notices in the newspapers that they should send their claims to the Committee. As the Committee has sent its final report to the Government and has ceased to exist, it is much regretted that nothing can now be done in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Wm. Tiller,
Army House,
Bar Road,
Falmouth.

Property Losses Committee (Ireland)

Dear Sir

I have the honour to forward two notes received from Dublin in reference to two compasses destroyed in the fire: - contents of these notes explain the position. - one compass a gird spirit compass I had placed in the hands of Mr. Bernard Lea for attention and was valued at £4. I request compensation. -

The second compass I had arranged to purchase from Mr. Bernard Lea (an ordinary ships compass) for 30% after certain repairs & re magnetic attention: - I am in doubt but I am of opinion Mr. Bernard Lea should claim for the loss of this as a question arises as to whether sale was completed.

If he has been refused compensation on the plea that this compass was my property, I then beg to claim compensation at 30p, and should hand over the amount recovered to Mr. Bernard Lea. -

I am

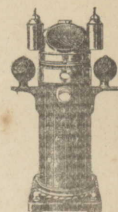

Sir

Your obedient servant
