re Claims of Miss Anderson and " Keyes.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 29th instant I beg to say that the explanation put forward does not appear to be a satisfactory one, and that unless hardship would be involved by not admitting the claims, the Committee must decline to extend the time for lodgment of claim in these particular cases.

Yours faithfully, has reply received. These claims were

Committee 1916

Dear Sir

If not too late, we would be obliged by your kindly giving us 4 Blank Compensation forms. Two of our Workwomen Miss Anderson and Miss Hayes have now informed us that they lost a few articles of clothing by the fire. For which they made no previous application as they state they did not know how to go about it
