Dear Sir

enclosed please find as desired by committee

Contents of two large cases of household goods which were looted during rebellion April 24th 1916 itemised

I previously put in claim for £20 - being advised to make my claim as small as possible

I did so knowing it to be an injustice to myself therefore

They have also sent in their Bill. £ 1-18-0 for the goods I have not received I would like to know if I am justified in paying the bill

Yours Respectfully

Dear Sir

I will leave it to your Generous discretion

My papers cost me to get £30, and that is the least, they are connected with family property that was taken through the London Probate Court and I proded myself next of kin the person that brought the case into the court when he found he had lost followed me from London to Bristol to shoot me and escaped seeing me through a few large luggage baskets hiding me, when he could not find me in Bristol he returned to his home in London took the train from Hurston to the City and blowed his brains out in the railway carriage that took all interest out of me at the time but still I remain next of kin and I must now try and get my papers over again They are ^(a) great loss to me I had four of my cases delivered for which I paid the British & Irish Steam Navigation Co £4 - and I asked them to send me this particular case but they would not oblige it was six feet long and about 3, wid

Dear Sir
Kindly let me know what is to be done in this matter, how any one can send in a bill after looking my things I really don't know. I look on it as an insult, and what angered me most was this particular case I asked them to send me, they failed to comply with my wishes simply they seen I was keen on having it, the papers) and family photos connected are impossible to get been taken so many years ago the papers I would have to go to Bristol, London Hull, Cork I of course could write but it is a complicated case. The Gentleman that assumed to be next of kin a Mr Alfred Smith, in the London Courts when I was proved next of kin he followed me from London the day of the the case to Bristol to blow my brains out having failed to find me, he went back to London and in a train blowed his own brains out, I lost all interest in the Affair but my Clous Give me to understand they are to be considered the money went through the the P. O look what I have ^{lost} and what I shall now have to pay for those things at present prices how the Shipping Company can expect me to pay them for loading my goods I really dont know if I lost any thing belonging to anyone I would do my best to replace same, a reply will greatly
