re Claim No. 826.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 26th inst, I beg to state that the Committee were unable under their terms of reference to make any recommendation in respect of the claims for cash lost, or for boarding refugees, and the Insurance Company are liable for the glass broken in shop. The balance represents in the opinion of the Committee the fair value, as at date of disturbance, of the remaining items claimed for, and they cannot, therefore, re-open the matter.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Mr C. Walsh,
