16th July 1916.

I inspected the damage in this case on the 10th inst. Occupier informed me that Miss Webster had obtained an estimate for the repairs, and that I only received this morning together with policy for inspection. The property is insured in the "National Assurance Co of Ireland" for £800. and insurance is in force to Midsummer 1917. The estimate is very reasonable & claim may be passed in full
