Claim 863.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of 6th instant forwarding claim for damage done to contents of No. 1 Wilton Place, Dublin, has been submitted to the Committee. In reply they direct me to state that having regard to the fact that the Policy (No. 11690530) with the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company covers loss due to Riot, Civil Commotion, Civil War, Revolution, Rebellion or Military or Usurped Power, they are of opinion that the Insurance Company is liable to make good to you the loss sustained. In the circumstances the Committee are unable to entertain your claim.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

re Damage to furniture, wearing apparel and other contents of house
1 Wilton Place, Dublin, occasioned by rifle fire from the troops on 30th April 1916.

Dear Sir,

I beg to forward herewith, in duplicate, form of claim in connection with the above, duly filled in: also Messrs. James Adam & Sons' Valuation of 8th May last, together with copy of same, and the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company's Policies, numbered 11691311, for £2840:18:0., and 11690530, for £2333:16:0. You will notice that the latter Policy was taken out by me to cover my furniture etc. against loss or damage (including that caused by Fire) directly occasioned by or happening through Riot, Civil Commotion, Civil War, Revolution, Rebellion or Military or Usurped Power, but excluding loss or damage directly or indirectly occasioned by or happening through Invasion or Foreign Enemy. The difference between the two above-mentioned figures, viz. £507. odd, represents the value of my silver and plated goods, which, when not in use, are stored in a strong room.

If there is any further information which you require, I shall, on hearing from you, be happy to furnish it.

Faithfully yours,

The Secretary,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee, 1916.
