Secretary.

Property Losses Committee.

Dublin.

Dear Sir,

With reference to our claim for £55, reduced value of motor van destroyed on Messrs Keatings premises, we wrote on 11th inst to the Under Secretary, Dublin Castle to ascertain cause of delay in settlement, and got a reply to the effect that the matter would receive attention. As you informed our representative that the claim was passed for settlement and remittance might be expected a few weeks ago, we shall be glad if you can inform us the reason for the delay in making payment.

887

We assumed that after the claim had passed your Committee, it would only be a matter of routine in discharging the amount. If this is not so, can you kindly inform us to what extent the Chief Secretary's office is scrutinising claims & what steps should be taken to further support our claim if it should be necessary.

Yours faithfully

F. W. BRITTAIN, LIMITED.

13th October,

re Claim No. 887.

Dear Sirs,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 11th instant and to state in reply that the consideration of the claim in this case was held over till all claims for property lost in Mr Keatings could be dealt with at the same time. The Committee hope very shortly to take up the consideration of these claims.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
