Dear Sir,

re Claim No.924 - Thos. J. Costello.

With further reference to mine of the 20th inst. respecting above claim. Messrs Costello & Co. are still positive that the Blue Forms were not sent to them and they have now ascertained that the British & Irish Steampacket Co. on behalf of the Insurance Co. are prepared to pay them the short price only of the tea which was looted but there is a sum of £7. 10. 0. due as refund of the duty paid on same and I shall be obliged if you will kindly arrange with the proper authorities for a refund of this amount.

Yours faithfully,

Robert J. Kidney
Secretary.

re Claim No. 924.

Dear Sirs,

The Committee have had some correspondence recently with Mr Kidney's Association relative to your claim.

The Committee were duly notified of your claim and sent forms for completion. These were never returned here. Later a claim was received from the Sea Insurance Company, C/o Messrs. D. & T. Fitzgerald, 20 St. Andrew Street, giving particulars of losses in connection with the disturbances, which had been settled by that Company, which included the name of your Firm.

In the circumstances the claim in your case was not proceeded with.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Dear Sir,

re Claim No. 924 - Thos. J. Costello.

With further reference to your letter of the 17th inst. Messrs Costello & Co., now inform me that they never received the blue forms in question and therefore had no knowledge that they were required. Will you please write them direct in the matter giving them the full name and address of the Sea Insurance Co. to whom they are to apply for settlement of their claim.

Yours faithfully,

Robert Kidney

re Claim No. 924 - Thos.J.Costello

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 14th inst I beg to state that the Committee's form of claim was never completed and returned by Messrs. Costello. As, however, a list of cases in which the Sea Insurance Company admitted liability for the loss sustained was received, which included Messrs. Costello's case, that case has been treated as disposed of.
