Dear Sir,

Your favour of 8th inst., and Paying Order to hand, and latter herewith returned as we cannot see our way to accept the paltry sum offered as compensation for the loss sustained by us, and object to having our name included amongst claimants who had been compensated for loss, seeing our claim has been so unfairly considered by your Committee.

In our opinion, the claim as originally rendered, is just and reasonable, and only the minimum amounts were asked for against the losses actually sustained and resulting from the Rebellion, and the sum of £7/10/- is only a small fractional part of what we claimed, so that we trust you will kindly submit this matter for further consideration.
