Re Claims for Glass broken at
1,2,3 and 4 Lower Camden St.

Dear Sir,

Letter D. 26/7/16

We are instructed by Messrs Gorevan Bros. Ltd. that they have been informed that your Committee/are unable to entertain their claim.

W. write to point out that we lodged a claim for Malicious Injury in respect of the above damage and you are aware the Rt. Hon. the Recorder stated in Court that he had received an intimation from the Attorney General that legislation would be introduced on the subject of all the claims before him and accordingly struck out all the claims including the one we lodged for Messrs Gorevan.

Our clients have had the glass put in on their own order and are responsible to their contractor, and we write to point out that great injustice would be due to our client if the committee refuse to entertain his claim, and we would be therefore glad if your Committee would re-consider the matter.

If our clients had been aware that their claim would

would be questioned, you will quite understand that strong objections would have been taken to the course proposed to be adopted, and we are satisfied that his Lordship would have adopted some course which would have secured our clients and others similarly circumstanced being fairly treated, and it is only because the representation was made that your Committee would deal with and settle all just claims that the course above mentioned was taken by the Recorder.

 I investigated this claim, but as the Insuring Company's (Hibernian Plate Glass) Policy No. 7871 contains no Riot, Rebellion &c. Exclusion Clause in its Conditions I make no recommendations as to compensation. The Insured has been notified by P. Reynolds that the Insurer is almost liable. 26th July 1916
