Dear Sir,

re W.O'Brien Hishon Claim No.1022.

The work necessitated owing to the destruction of Books and records, comprises:-

- (1) The preparation of last balance sheets of various clients enumerated in Claim and the opening of new Ledgers.
- (2) The preparation of Audit notes, reconciliations and list of balances in many instances for commencement of fresh Audit.
- (3) The making out of various Returns of Friendly Societies. These were prepared and ready for filing but had not been filed with Registrar of Friendly Societies.
- (4) The preparation of various Returns for Income Tax purposes.

Note. The cost of the preparation of the above includes travelling expenses and salary of Staff so employed.

The 104 Audits for which Mr Hishon claims for loss of (embrace)
time, and travelling expenses and labour involved in the preparation of necessary previous Audit Records, returns to Registrar of Friendly

Societies, Income Tax Schedules and the replacement of labour on books which were destroyed belonging to his clients.

There are only 11 Audits in Dublin, the remainder being in various parts of the country.

We consider Mr Hishon's loss in connection with above will be at least £150 over and above the amount of our Award by our report No.208 dated 29th August, 1916 which related to Office furniture, Fixtures & Fittings & Private Books without labour thereon.

Yours faithfully,

W. D. Montgomery

Will the Committee re-consider the claim for loss of Courier Note Books in this case? See Commissioners' report of 29/8/16, and quotation of 16/1/17 from Atlas Insurance Co.

True, Atlas & any Co will ~~not~~ insure under a special policy - but not an ordinary.
The question is what is his money loss
if he cannot reproduce these audit sheets he has no loss of money value beyond the value of the paper used for them.

If he can reproduce them he must show the cost of so doing & also prove the necessity for so

Re Claim No. 1022

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 15th I now beg to submit quotation from the Atlas Insurance Co. covering my risk against loss by fire, of Audit Note Books and other professional records. I have instructed this Company to prepare a Policy for me. In view of the fact that the disallowed items of my claim can be covered by an ordinary fire policy I trust that your Committee will reconsider my claim for the losses I have sustained.

Dear Sir,

I understand that my claim for compensation in respect of Audit Note Books and other professional records destroyed by fire during last Easter Week has been disallowed. In view of the fact that the books and records referred to are insurable, as per letter of quotation enclosed, I now beg to ask that my claim should receive the further consideration of your Committee. I may state that I only claimed a minimum amount of compensation to cover cost of reconstructing the absolutely necessary records. Being, apparently, the only member of the Accountancy profession whose offices and records were destroyed, I am in a somewhat isolated position as regards my claim. I would, however, suggest the equity of dealing with same on similar lines to that of a Solicitor whose papers were destroyed. Needless to state the loss of my records has handicapped me considerably in my practice, and I trust that your Committee will be good enough to give this part of my claim the further consideration now asked for.

Yours faithfully,

I. Encl.
