I shall be glad to have my claim settled as soon as possible. I cannot understand delay in my case when so many of my friends have had their claims settled.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT.

Claim No. 1126, H. R. Polden.

The Watch in question was a very valuable one. The case alone weighed over 3 ounces, and if sold as old gold would be value for £12.0. 0. Mr. Moore distinctly remembers the watch and considers it was well worth the amount claimed viz., £20.

Dear Sir

Some time ago

I lodged an application for compensation for an old English gold
lover watch which was destroyed or looted during the rebellion. It was in Moore's Jewellers

Sackville St. I understood the claims of those who suffered small losses are being settled and I am surprised at not having received any word with reference to mine.

Hoping to hear from you by return
Yours faithfully

A. R. Peders

Dear Sir,

I am surprised that I have not heard anything further in the matter of my claim for gold watch
lost in recent Rebellion.

I shall be glad to have the matter settled as soon as possible.

Yours truly
