GENERAL POST OFFICE, DUBLIN.

15 August 1916.

Gentlemen,

Referring to your letter of the 25th May last claiming compensation for the loss of your private post bag which was destroyed by the fire in the General Post Office, Dublin, I am directed by the Postmaster General to inform you that he is not legally liable in respect of any damage sustained by a private bag left in his custody, and to suggest that you should make application in the matter to the Property Losses (Ireland) Committee 1916, 51 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin, who state that they will be prepared to deal with such claims.

I am,

Gentlemen,

Gent. In reply to your esteemed enquiry the cost of a Best Quality leather Port bag of the size mentioned viz. 20" long x 8" wide 15" deep (are these inside or outside size?) would be 55/- nett each the Brass plate Engraving (as below) 2/- extra

We think you would find a fixed lever lock more convenient than staple for padlock so have quoted for the lock which would be supplied with two Keys

We are Dear Sirs

Yours obediently
