Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 21st instant I beg to state that this claim has been most fully and carefully considered and the Committee regret that they are unable to vary their recommendation in the matter.

DUBLIN, 23rd October, 1916.

No. 128. Mary Connolly

Messrs. Hume.

This case was reported on by you on 22nd August last. Have you any remarks to make on the annexed letter? May it be assumed that claimant cannot furnish any information of the items in her claim beyond what she has already supplied?

Probably that this is a case where more fully & carefully considered + the various items recommended in the letter. Commonly require that claimant should be asked to supply the number.

W.M. 24/10/16

We were under the impression Claimant could have furnished further and fuller information had she tried. We found her difficult to deal with and <sup>she</sup> seemed to resent investigation of her Stock and Personal Effects. We are satisfied our Valuation fully represents the value of what she lost.

J J Healey Esq
Dear Sir

I beg to inform you. I have today received an order from the Chief Secretary's office Dublin to pay £230 in full settlement of my claim no. 28 amount £500 odd, after six months waiting they insult me by giving me less than half the amount, this you must admit is preposterous. do they want to make out my claim was a bogus concoction, and that I was trying to obtain money under false pretences. Mr Armour gave me all the trouble possible when making out the claim every item had to be given in detail, name and addresses of the Customers for whom I was making up material, name and addresses of all the people from whom I had bought articles and stuffs for the past ten years, names & address of people who had given me some expensive presents & articles of Jewellery. I had to get receipts from different Jewellers in Dublin and elsewhere for years past. I had to make out several copies before Mr Armour was satisfied, and after giving him all the particulars and information required. I am offered this amount which would not pay the debts I have incurred since restarting.

I am holding over the order till I hear from you. I had an interview with Mr Armour after receiving the order. I make it clear to him I was anything but satisfied. Probably I will call on you Monday Morning

Yours Faithfully
Mary Conolly

Mr Healey
Dear Sir

I am much disappointed at not having some response to my claim, which was sent forward by Mr Armour about 26 August. I am greatly pressed for money at present. I had an interview with Mr Armour today, and he was very much surprised to hear I had not got anything yet, might I ask you to urge forward my claim, as it is quite impossible to continue business unless I get my claim satisfied immediately, thanking you in anticipation.

Yours Respectfully
